

The slogan war is peace refers to the constant war between the three main superstates, Oceania, Eurasia, and Eastasia. This allows the people of Oceania to be united against a common enemy. It also can distract them from the fact that their lives are under complete rule, keeping things peaceful for the Party.