

The slogan freedom is slavery represents the Party's ideal that freedom is only achievable through complete submission to the Party's ideologies. It also refers to the notion alone, man can easily be defeated. However, together, they are unstoppable.